

Digital Museum Tours

Virtual Europe Week

Though the physical aspects of social distancing can make us seem far apart, there's no reason for it to keep us from exploring the world. That's why the UNC Center for European Studies is kicking off our annual Europe Week celebrations with this carefully curated list of virtual tours. Ranging from historical artifacts to stunning street views, there's something here for everyone. So, what are you waiting for? Join us on an intellectual adventure as we tour Europe. For more information on Europe Week events, check out our itinerary on europe.unc.edu/europeweek.

Tour

The Louvre

Description

Examine ancient artifacts, Renaissance masterworks, and the literal foundations of the Louvre with these virtual tours. With a virtual map and helpful hints, this self-directed exploration of one of the world's most famous art museums is sure to impress.

The British Museum

Scroll your way through human history on this amazing tour of time from the British Museum. Divided by world regions, the tour illuminates the intricately interwoven web of human culture.

Musée d'Orsay

Watch the creation of the world renowned Musée d'Orsay unfurl before your eyes in this remarkable online exhibit from Google Arts & Culture.

Pergamon Museum, Berlin

Learn about the ancient Greek city of Pergamon through this digitized exhibit of works from the Berlin Pergamon Museum.

Rijksmuseum

Marvel at the works of Amsterdam's Rijksmuseum with this delightful, digital walking tour.

Van Gogh Museum

Explore the life and works of the creator of Starry Night with these stunning exhibits in Amsterdam's Van Gogh Museum.

Uffizi Gallery

Immerse yourself in the aesthetic world of the Medicis as you virtually stroll the halls of Florence's Uffizi Gallery.

Museo del Prado

Experience the behind-the-scenes of the Museo del Prado through this light-hearted and hand-illustrated tour.