This created the European Coal and Steel Community (the beginnings of the modern day E.U.) founded by Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, and the Netherlands.

What is the E.U.?

History:

In 1957 they signed the Treaty of Rome creating deeper cooperation economically and saw success in their connection.

In 1973 Denmark, Ireland, and United Kingdom (left in 2020) joined.

Greece joined in 1981 and Portugal and Spain in 1986.

In 1995 Austria, Finland, and Sweden became members.

2004 saw 10 more countries join. Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Slovakia, Slovenia, Malta, and Cyprus.

- Come in different sizes to easily recognize
- In 2021 the European Central Bank announced It would redesign the notes. New design Expected in 2024.

On the front of both series, windows and doorways are shown. They symbolise the European spirit of openness and cooperation

On the back of both series, bridges symbolise communication between the people of Europe and between Europe and the rest of the world.

Banknotes (first series) show architectural styles from various periods in Europe's history.

€5: Classical

€10: Romanesque

€20: Gothic

€50: Renaissance

€100: Baroque and Rococo

€200: 19th century iron and glass architecture

€500: Modern 20th century architecture.

The 500 banknote was withdrawn in 2019

SECURITY FEATURES

To check the authenticity of banknotes, the simple 'Feel-Look-Tilt' method can be used

8 security features for first series

+5 security features for Europa series

Raised print

Feel the banknote and the thicker elements: the main image, the short raised lines and the large value numeral.

Architectural style

Initials of the European Central Bank

Signatures

Banknotes from the Europa series bear the signature of either former European Central Bank Presidents or current President Christine Lagarde. Banknotes with either signature are equally valid.

Portrait hologram

Tilt the banknote. The hologram – the silvery stripe on the right – reveals a portrait of Europa. The stripe also shows a copy of the main image and the value of the banknote.

Portrait watermarks

Look at the banknote against the light. In the second series of banknotes the window in the hologram becomes transparent and reveals a portrait of Europa on both sides of the note.

Banknotes from the Europa series bear the signature of either former European Central Bank Presidents or current President Christine Lagarde. Banknotes with either signature are equally valid.

Emerald number

The shiny number changes colour from emerald green to deep blue and displays an effect of the light that moves up and down.

Portrait watermarks

Look at the banknote against the light. In the second series of banknotes the window in the hologram becomes transparent and reveals a portrait of Europa on both sides of the note.

This figure from Greek mythology was included because it adds a human touch to the banknotes. The image was taken from a vase in the Louvre museum in Paris.

Stars of the European flag

The 12 stars represent the union between European nations. The number 12 symbolises perfection and harmony.

Turn and talk: Tell your partner one thing you learned about the Euro.

If you were able to redesign our 1 dollar bill, what would you choose? Take a few minutes and think about what you would want to include. People, buildings, colors? It is your decision as long as you can explain why.

Turn and talk with your partner about the ideas you have to redesign the dollar bill.

Now you will get a paper where you will create your new design of the front and back of the dollar bill. You will also include a paragraph telling us why you picked the things you did to include on your design.

European Union

Day 5

How does the E.U. Parliament decided what they will do?

- 3 main ways decisions are made
 - Ordinary legislative procedure
 - Consultation
 - Assent

Ordinary legislative procedure

This procedure is the standard decision-making procedure used in the European Union, unless the treaties specifically state one of the special legislative procedures is to be applied to a particular subject. Before the Treaty of Lisbon came into force late 2009 it was referred to as the co-decision procedure. The essential characteristic of this procedure is that both the Council of Ministers as well as the European Parliament have a deciding vote in the legislative process, and both institutions may amend a proposal.

Consultation

This procedure is one of the special legislative procedures used in the European Union. The consultation procedure is used for politically sensitive issues, where the member states bear responsibility for policy making and where the member states make decisions based on unanimity.

Assent

This procedure is one of the special legislative procedures used in the European Union. The assent procedure is used for several very important decisions, as well as for matters where the member states wish to retain a larger degree of control. The word assent refers to the role the European Parliament (EP) plays in the procedure. It has to approve or disapprove a proposal, but cannot amend it.

The Council of the European Union

For some items the Council has to vote unanimously for items to pass.

- * Most common foreign and security policy issues
- * Citizenship
- * EU Membership
- * Harmonisation of national legislation on indirect taxation
- * EU Finances
- * Certain justice and home affair issues
- * Harmonization of national legislation on social security and social protection

School issues

In groups you will discuss situations at our school that you believe need attention. You will need to work together to decide on one issue to share with the group when we reconvene whole group.

Once groups are done we will share out all of the school problems identified and make a chart. We will use this chart in our next lesson.

European Union

Day 1 will be a discussion around all of the different problems we identified in our last session. Teams will take turns discussing the problem they picked, why they think it is important, and why they picked it.

Once all the teams have presented, there will be group discussion and/or clarifying questions ending in a vote for which problem is the most important. The discussion and votes will continue until the class can come to a consensus vote on which problem to work on.

If time allows teams will begin discussing/researching how to solve the problem identified through consensus.

Day 2 will be a continuation of the research/discussion by groups to decide how they would solve the problem identified in the last lesson. Once all the teams have their decision on how they would fix the problem they will present their solution to the whole class.

Once all the teams have presented, there will be group discussion and/or clarifying questions ending in a vote deciding how to solve the problem. The discussion and votes will continue until the class can come to a consensus vote on which solution should be implemented.

End this section of the lessons by having students write about this experience of trying to find consensus around a school problem and solution. Remind them to tie it into their understanding of how difficult this must be at the E.U. level.

Essential Questions

What is the E.U. and what makes it important?

Learning Acquisition and Assessment

Students will know... (content/concepts) What the E.U. is, how it works, its resources, and how consensus works.	Students will be able to... (skills, performance tasks) identify important items that could be included on classroom identifiers (money, flag) and will be able to engage in a mock parliament working on consensus to solve a school problem.

Formative Assessments Observations around discussion and Kahoot “exit tickets”	Summative Assessments Written descriptions of identifiers and parliamentary experience.

Learning Activities (1 week – 5 days): Lesson introduction, body, and closing

Day 1-2	Included Google slides and resources support teaching of the lessons in class. You will need these lessons to teach daily as they go deeper into what is being done each day. Skelskey Companion slides for European Union Lessons What is the E.U.? (members, maps, organization, reasons, including flags and meanings of E.U. flag, and 1-2 country flags. Students will create a flag for their school and explain their design in writing.) This lesson may take 2-3 days.
Day 3-4	Introduction to the Euro and importance. Basic explanation of the designs and students will recreate the U.S. dollar bill and explain their design in writing. Day 1 of this lesson will be laying the foundation of the Euro and day 2 will be time for students to design their dollar bill.
Day 5	Identifying the ways the E.U. makes decisions and how countries agree to abide by them. Students will identify 2-3 school problems they might be able to try and solve using a similar format. Keep the school problem chart you create as a class for the next two days lessons.

European Union Unit

2nd Grade

Day 6-7 (possibly 8)	Teacher will choose one of the previously identified school problems, or use one they identify. Students will work in an E.U, format to come to a consensus decision on how to solve the identified problem. They will work in teams of 2-3 to research ideas and then present to entire classroom parliament. Students will write a response explaining this experience including pros and cons of consensus. Day 1 will be discussions around all of the problems that were identified and coming to a consensus vote around which one to tackle. Then groups will research/discuss the ways they feel the problem can be solved. Day 2 groups will present their ideas and whole group discussions will take place with a consensus vote at the end of the lesson to decide which solution to adopt. Teacher will be moderator and present clarifying questions, redirection, and guidance for student groups as they discuss their solutions and come to a consensus vote. Day 2 or a 3rd day if needed students will write about the experience of trying to come to consensus and tie it to their understanding of how the E.U. makes decisions.
